

Mickleton Literary Week

We are celebrating books for a whole week, with authors visiting in person and remotely for exciting workshops and creative reading and writing activities.

Stuart Reid, Tom Percival, John Carter and Elizabeth Milbourn
Many of these authors give their time for free or at a greatly reduced rate, please consider buying one of their personally signed books to help them continue to inspire children to read.

Author Visit - We will be hosting a visit from the award-winning Scottish author Stuart Reid on Thursday 26th January 2023.

Stuart's first book won the Silver Medal at the Forward National Literature Awards, and his books are written to inspire children to read for pleasure. Stuart's last book 'Grandpa Jock and the Incredible Iron-Bru-Man Incident' was launched at the Edinburgh Festival, whilst his brand new title, Soggy Saturday Sandwich was released in January 2023.

Pupils can purchase books on the day, all signed by the author, with a personal dedication to each child. Book prices are £7 each, two for £12, or a school special offer of five books for £20.

Last week, your child brought home a sponsorship form for the Readathon. Please help them to get sponsors and fill in the form. It is easiest if sponsors can pay on the website <https://readforgood.enthuse.com/donate#!/> to save having to bring money into school.

50% of money raised buys new books for our school and 50% buys books for Children's Hospitals
